

CMA2LS/MET3LS -

Training and assessment courses for experienced operatives who wish to install, commission, service, and disconnect gas meters.

This Gas Safety Assessment is designed to test the gas safety competence of an operative in limited core domestic gas work by practical knowledge. This also includes the appliance MET3LS which is designed to test the gas safety competence of an operative in the work of install and commission domestic gas meters only which are then sealed off at the meter outlet fitting to ensure gas is not left available to the installation pipe work and/or appliances.

This Gas Safety Assessment comprises of 7 core competencies:

1. Gas Safety Legislation
 2. Gas Emergency Actions and Procedures
 3. Installation of Pipework and Fittings
 4. Tightness Testing & Purging of Domestic Sized NG Installations
 5. Checking and/or Setting Meter Regulators
 6. Identification of Unsafe Situations and the Use of Emergency Notices and Warning Labels
 7. The Operation of and Positioning of Emergency Isolation Controls and Valves
- Range of Meters covered: Primary Meters up to 6 cubic meters per hour capacity.